Term 2 Week 6

The Scholastic Book Fair has been a great success. Some proceeds are returned to the school, which will allow us to purchase some new books for the library. Thanks Michelle for arranging and running the book fair.

This week staff from EarthEd brought their Sphero robots to the school and spent the day with our Grade 3 to 6 students. Students learnt how to program the robots, with some even being programmed to speak Chinese! The collaboration between our students was great to see, as they worked together to complete some challenges and learnt a lot about angles and degrees.

Monday is a public holiday and the school is closed.

A reminder that we have the Toastie and Pyjama Day next Tuesday. Thanks to Miss Burns, staff and our Junior School Councillors for organising the day.

Enjoy the long weekend!

Senior Studio

We have had a great week in the Senior studio. On Wednesday students had a wonderful time participating in an Earth Ed incursion where they had to code and program robots. Students have also been busy completing assessment tasks. It has been wonderful to see such great improvement across all areas of the curriculum.

Grade 3/4 Inquiry

Students in grade 3/4 have been learning all about African animals. They have explored and created diorama's that showcase their selected animals habitats, conservation status, predators and diets. As a finale to our African Animal topic, the students will be holding an open afternoon from 3:00pm-4:00pm next Thursday (15th June) in the Blue Gum studio (Mrs A's room) for parents to come along and view their child's work.

D.A.S.H

The D.A.S.H showcase is coming up! This event will be where the students present their project ideas, and then a final vote will take place, for which project will come to life with 'Blue Light's' support. Families are invited to this event, and we would absolutely love to see you there to see what the students have been up to in inquiry this term! Details are as follows:
